Print Collector's Booklets

THE booklets are reprints of articles which have appeared in the Print Collector's Quarterly, whose publication was suspended by the Museum for the duration of the war with Volume VII, No. 4, December, 1917. Six of the booklets have been published, each treating of some master or masters of modern French engraving. The list is as follows:

The Men of 1830.

The Art and Etchings of Jean François Millet.
Le Père Corot.

Charles François Daubigny, Painter and Etcher.

By Robert J. Wickenden.

Charles Jacque (1813-1894).

By Robert J. Wickenden.

Maxime Lalanne.

By William Aspenwall Bradley.

The price of the booklets is 20 cents each (22 cents postpaid), or the set, $1.00 ($1.05 postpaid). They are on sale at the Huntington Avenue entrance to the Museum and at the Fenway entrance adjacent to the Print Department. They may also be obtained by application to the Secretary of the Museum.

Notes

DURING THE WINTER and until further notice the Library of the Museum, over the entrance, will be open on Saturday afternoons until four o'clock. On other weekdays the Library is open from 9 A. M. to 4.30 P. M.

A MIMEOGRAPHED LIST of the books added to the Library is issued every four months, and a limited number of copies is available for distribution. A copy will be sent to any one upon application to the Librarian.

CATALOGUE OF THE MORSE COLLECTION OF JAPANESE POTTERY. In view of the approaching exhaustion of the edition the price of the volume has been advanced to fifty dollars. The few remaining copies of the large paper edition have been withdrawn from sale for the present.
